"What Is Epistemic Justice, and Why Should We Care?"

Epistemology is the study of knowledge--what we know and how we learn it. Terms like "testimonial epistemic injustice" sound really complex. But what if we think we know something--that just isn't true? What if we assume something--without even realizing we're doing it? Breaking this complex-sounding topic down into real-world terms, we can better turn our good intentions into real-world practice.

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

Chalice Lighting

"A Sturdy Flame"
by Rev. Julianne Lepp
Delivered by Margie Manning

We light this chalice with hope, a sturdy flame we nurture in these difficult times.
We light this chalice with the heart of compassion for a nation divided by politics and strife.
We light this chalice knowing that it will take all of us to repair this world we live in.
May we find rest, compassion and the hope that we need to nurture ourselves and each other.
May this sturdy light remind us of the people we can be, and the difference we can make in the world together.

Hymn #414 "As You Leave This Friendly Place"

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev'ry face;
may the kindness which you learn
light your hearts till you return.

Opening Hymn #208 "Every Time"

(Chorus)

Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.
Yes, ev'ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.

Upon the mountain, my God spoke,
o'er the mount came fire and smoke.
All around me looks so shine,
ask my God if all was mine.

(Chorus)

The River Jordan runs right cold, chills the body, not the soul.
Ain't but one train on this track,
runs to heaven and right back.

(Chorus)

Closing Hymn #1018 “Come and Go with Me”

Come and go with me to that land,
Come and go with me to that land,
Come and go with me to that land
where I’m bound. (2x)

There’ll be freedom in that land...

There’ll be justice in that land...

There’ll be singin’ in that land...
