“What do cows in France say? Moo-la-la!”

In this season of renewal, laughter is good for the heart and the mind. Join us this morning for all things corny and comical.

Happy Father’s Day!

Chalice Lighting

“We Light Our Chalice for Fathers and Fatherhood”
By Peter Friedrich
Delivered by Judy Toth

For sleepless nights, with babies and teenagers,
For hours spent on the sidelines cheering,
For the pressure of being a breadwinner,
For teaching moments and mentoring moments,
For handing over car keys and waving good by
For cradling grandchildren and great grandchildren for the first time,
We light our chalice for fathers and fatherhood – with gratitude.

Opening Hymn #188 "Come, Come, Whoever You Are"

Come, come, whoever you are,
wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving.
Ours is no caravan of despair.
Come, yet again come.

Closing Hymn #329 "Life Has Loveliness to Sell"

Life has loveliness to sell, all beautiful and splendid things, blue waves whitened on a cliff, soaring fire that sways and sings,
and children's faces looking up, holding wonder like a cup.

Life has loveliness to sell, as music, like a curve of gold, scent of pine trees in the rain, eyes that love you, arms that hold,
and for your spirit's still delight, holy thoughts that star the night.

Spend all you have for loveliness, to buy and never count the cost:
for one singing hour of peace count a year of strife well lost,
and for a breath of ecstasy give all you have been, or could be.
