

Rev. Amy Kindred

Five Stones to Love

Unitarian Universalists have a history of being underdogs when it comes to coaxing a society toward more justice. And yet, "It is not about the size of the dog in the fight that matters. It is about the size of the fight in the dog that wins."

(This quote is often attributed to Mark Twain but it has never been substantiated.)

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

Chalice Lighting

"The Great Turning"
By Lisa Garcia-Sampson
Delivered by Peggy Tanney

In these wild, historic, and uncertain times, we gather to remember who we are,
who we belong to,
and what we are called to do.
As we light this chalice, we kindle the spirit of the great turning:
the movement for justice alive in this nation today.
May we feel it in our bones,
and in the stillness of this hour, may we sense it calling our name.

Hymn #414 “As You Leave This Friendly Place”

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev’ry face;
may the kindness which you learn light your hearts till you return.

Hymn # 188 “Come, Come Whoever You Are”

Come, come, whoever you are, wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving.
Ours is no caravan of despair.
Come, yet again come.

Hymn #123 “Spirit of Life”

Spirit of Life, come unto us.
Sing in our hearts all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold us close; wings set us free;
Spirit of Life, come to us, come to us.

Hymn #318 “We Would Be One”

We would be one as now we join in singing our hymn of love, to pledge ourselves anew to that high cause of greater understanding of who we are, and what in us is true.
We would be one in living for each other to show to all a new community.

We would be one in building for tomorrow
a nobler world than we have known today.
We would be one in searching for that meaning which bends our hearts and points us on our way.
As one, we pledge ourselves to greater service,
with love and justice, strive to make us free.
